

From: Jean-Luc Boccon-Gibod
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/25/02 4:50am
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

I strongly oppose the proposal of MS to give hardware and software to schools in need worth 1 billion US$ in order to avoid a fine of the same amount. This would make a breach into a stronghold of Apple in the world of education and would be a completely unfair commercial practice. I do hope that the Department of Justice will not be abused by this impudent proposal.